 - a. Schedule time to speak at a faculty meeting;
 - b. Present the goals and objectives of the program to stimulate interest and support;

9. Conduct initial meeting.
10. Expand membership by using bulletin board to display announcements about the chapter, its membership requirements, and its activities, and to encourage interested students to join.

SUGGESTED PROCEDURES AND ACTIVITIES FOR FFEA HIGH SCHOOL CHAPTER MEETINGS

The chapter advisor, with assistance from the chapter council, and approval by the principal, should determine the regular meeting day, time, and location. Regularly scheduled meetings are essential to maintain involvement of the members and motivate them to complete planned activities. However, the meetings should not be held solely for planning activities. Rather, student members should also benefit in other ways, such as learning about things of interest to them. During the first few meetings, the chapter members should be asked to share what they are interested in learning.

Initial Chapter Meeting

It is suggested that the meeting be held before or after school for approximately 30-45 minutes. An alternate time might be the last hour of the school day. Future meeting days, times, and location should be determined by the chapter council, with the approval of the chapter advisor.

The chapter advisor should conduct the meetings until such time as officers are officially elected. A volunteer should take minutes.

Personal information from the application should be used to build the chapter roster.

Early in the initial meeting, chapter members should be asked to introduce themselves and tell why they are interested in joining the chapter.

The advisor should review with chapter members:

1. the purpose, goals, and objectives of the chapter;
2. the constitution and by-laws;
3. the role of the chapter officers and the nomination and selection process;
4. examples of activities in which chapter members may be involved; and
5. expected participation and commitment of chapter members.

In preparation for the next meeting, members may be asked to consider nominations for officers, ideas for chapter activities, and ways to recruit new members and publicize the chapter.

The advisor should conclude the meeting by stressing the importance of teamwork and the potential the chapter has to improve the school's and students' attitudes toward teachers and learning.

Second Chapter Meeting

The advisor welcomes new members and has them introduce themselves.

The advisor reviews the responsibilities of the chapter officers and the election procedures.

The members elect officers. (Following the elections, the advisor may need to assist the officers with their new responsibilities. Many chapters use Robert's Rules of Order, [Newly Revised].)

Members will begin to develop the first draft of a Yearly Action Plan by discussing potential school service, community service, fund-raising, and other member activities.

The president will present the possible need for special assignment committees and ask for volunteers.

After the meeting, the officers may need to discuss their responsibilities with the advisor and plan the next meeting.

Subsequent Chapter Meetings

The chapter council should establish and follow an order of business for chapter meetings. The following is a sample format:

- I. President calls the meeting to order. (Chapter council members sit at the head table.)
- II. Secretary conducts and records the roll call.
- III. Secretary reads aloud the minutes of the previous meetings as well as any other correspondence. Members move to approve or make corrections before moving to approve.
- IV. Officers and/or committee chairs make reports.
- V. President opens meeting for discussion of new business. Motions may follow and be passed or dismissed.
- VI. Chapter may conduct activity that might include any of the following:
 - A. Presentations by guest speakers – business partners, other teachers, school/district administrators, etc.
 - B. Presentation of films, panels, etc.

- C. Discussions/information on teachers' responsibilities, the many roles teachers play in the education of children and young adults, how to make learning fun, study skills, how to best prepare for college, colleges with strong teacher education programs, etc.
- VII. President recognizes chapter members who wish to make appropriate announcements.
- VIII. Optional closing activity – informal sharing time with refreshments; inspirational poem, quote, or short story.
- IX. President entertains motion to adjourn; motion is made, seconded, and passed by members.

2. Seek information to establish whether there is a problem.
3. Maintain the other person's self-esteem.
4. Make procedural suggestion to settle matter at some specific, later time.
5. Summarize discussion prior to attack.

IV. Understanding Committees and How They Work

The constitution and by-laws of the Florida Future Educators of America High School program provide for standing committees that operate all year and ad hoc committees that accomplish special tasks, such as the Yearly Budget Plan.

A committee can be considered a miniature chapter. Although its purpose is more specific than that of the chapter's in that it investigates, reports, or acts upon matters, it is a reflection of the chapter's structure. It holds scheduled meetings, follows an agenda, and has a committee chairperson who functions like a president, and its members participate as they would in a chapter meeting. Other similarities include committee recorder, who serves the same purpose as the chapter's secretary; and committee meetings that are run according to parliamentary procedure, as are the chapter meetings.

Once students know which committee(s) they have been assigned to, the committees are ready to meet. It is important for all chapter members to participate since the committee is at the heart of chapter activities. The advisor should be available to offer guidance and suggestions, as needed, to each committee. An agenda should be prepared so each chairperson is aware of the committee's objectives.

After the chairperson calls the meeting to order, his/her first order of business is to appoint a recorder to keep minutes and prepare them for the chairperson's report at the chapter council meeting. The first meeting usually involves "brainstorming" for ideas, compiling a list, discussing some basic details, and then selecting a few to recommend to chapter members. The chairperson may then adjourn the meeting, leaving the recorder to write up the report.

The vice president keeps track of when committees meet, assuring that they are ready to report to the chapter, and coordinating between committees and the chapter council. The vice president will see to it that the chairperson is given a place on the agenda of the next chapter council meeting to submit the committee report to the chapter members.

Immediately after the report to the chapter membership, the chairperson should move that the report be adopted. If the motion carries, the activities become the official contribution to the chapter's program. If the chapter adopts some but not all the suggestions, the committee must add, delete, and revise its proposal until it is adopted by the chapter. After the activities have been adopted, committee members meet to begin to firm up the details of their activities.

V. Selecting Committee Chairpersons and Assigning Members

Chapter officers coordinate the activities of the chapter. In many chapters, officers serve as committee chairpersons (e.g., treasurer as chairperson of the financial committee; reporter as chairperson of public relations committee). However, other members should be considered since it is an opportunity for more members to learn leadership skills. Members should be polled to determine who wishes to chair a committee and the areas in which they have the greatest interest and ability. The vice president should direct the selection process, and the chapter council should appoint the committee chairpersons.

Every member should complete a Priority Sign-up Form and be assigned to at least one committee. Member interest and ability; suitable meeting times; and desired representation by grade, sex, and length of membership should be considered. Once the committee assignments have been completed, the vice president should enter the names of the chairpersons and members in a file.

VI. Committee Reporting, Evaluating, and Annual Review

Prior to each meeting of the chapter council, the chairperson of each committee should insure that a Committee Report Form has been completed. This report is used to record the committee actions and must be submitted during chapter council meetings.

It is essential that committees evaluate their progress in planning and carrying out activities during the year; the more careful the evaluation, the better the next activity will be.

The committee chairperson and chapter council should meet near the close of each year to review the chapter's progress. The Annual Committee Review should be completed and placed in the records for the next school year.

STEPS IN DEVELOPING AN FFEA HIGH SCHOOL CHAPTER YEARLY ACTION PLAN

An Action Plan can best be described as the yearly program of activities for an FFEA Chapter. A successful chapter does not “just happen.” It must have a well-developed plan of implementation. When the FFEA advisor and members work cooperatively to publicize their chapter’s activities, growth and prestige of FFEA within their school and community can be achieved. The elements of a successful Action Plan should be consistent with the chapter’s district and school policies as well as the goals, constitution and by-laws of the organization.

First, the advisor and chapter council should determine the regular or monthly meeting location and times. Regular meetings are essential to maintaining involvement and morale. Meetings can be designed to help members obtain information to enhance their academic and social lives, to provide knowledge about the education profession, and to plan activities.

After the monthly meeting location and times have been determined, a list of possible activities appropriate for the chapter (performing school and community service, fund-raising, marketing the chapter, and social functions) should be developed. Before selecting activities, answers to the following questions should be determined (committees may be formed to research the specifics for each activity):

1. What is the activity?
2. What is the purpose of the activity?
3. Who will be targeted? How will they benefit?
4. Who will participate? Will participants enjoy the activity?
5. Will this activity stimulate recruitment of other members and provide visibility of the chapter?
6. When will the activity occur?
7. What are the steps necessary for the successful implementation of this activity?
8. What is the financial cost of or the anticipated income from this activity?
9. How many worker hours will be needed to successfully complete this activity?
10. For fund-raising activities, will the profit be sufficient to warrant the amount of worker hours and initial investment?

To finalize the Action Plan, the written reports from the various committees are presented to the entire chapter and voted on; a report for the administrator(s) and other school club advisors is prepared and checked carefully for conflicts; and a copy of the plan is published and posted. The chapter council is responsible for helping the chapter maintain its focus and pursue the goals presented in the Action Plan. Therefore, officers should begin announcing the upcoming events at each meeting.

BUDGETING FOR FFEA HIGH SCHOOL CHAPTER ACTIVITIES

Some considerations

In some instances, chapter activities will require funds in order to be implemented. When developing a budget for chapter activities, several considerations should be addressed:

1. Will the planned activities require a larger budget than can be easily raised?
2. How can available funds best be spent?
3. What are potential sources of funds? Can they be raised by the students through chapter dues, fund-raising activities, or contributions from other sources such as business partners?
4. In order to raise these funds, will other school or district staff, such as the principal and/or the superintendent, need to be consulted?

Ideas for Fund-Raising Activities

1. Collect dues (if permitted by principal).
2. Solicit support from local businesses.
3. Conduct car washes and sales of baked goods, candy and/or packaged individual cake, Halloween grams (messages with candy), Valentine kisses, pizza, french fries, marshmallow treats, candied apples, carnations, etc.
4. Display baby pictures of teachers. Hold a contest to guess who they are for $.25 per guess. The student with the most correct guesses wins a prize.
5. Make t-shirts with puffy paint of school colors, logo, etc., to sell.
6. Conduct a scavenger hunt and charge for the list of items to be found. Give a prize to winning team.

TO: FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF
FROM: _____, ADVISOR
RE: STUDENT INTERN/SHADOW DAY, _____

Since I would like to provide our "Future Educators" with a rewarding teaching experience, I have granted permission for each active member in good standing to choose two non-conflicting positions for the day or two members may choose to intern/shadow for the same teacher for one entire day. The members will choose positions. Naturally, you do not have to accept a student just because the student asks; the members understand this. EVERY MEMBER MUST SPEND A MINIMUM OF TWO PERIODS INTERNING/SHADOWING IN A CLASSROOM IN ORDER TO MAINTAIN ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP!

PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE. . . Do not accept more than TWO F.F.E.A interns for any period; please write down their names for your records. Accept only students you feel have the ability to perform in your field. Remember, the experience should INSPIRE the students to enter the field of education. If a student is acceptable to you, please sign this form, clearly indicating the class subject, period(s) and room number. This will help me to keep track of all the members. Should you not know which other students are FFEA High School members and desire a student intern/shadow, drop me a note. I will direct another qualified member to you.

MANY THANKS, FELLOW EDUCATORS!

This student wishes to intern/shadow with you in _____ (class subject) during periods _____ in room _____ and is willing to commit to preparing lessons and assignments and performing helpful tasks. The student will meet with you by _____ and again touch base with you on _____ to discuss (date) (date)
workable lesson plans and duties. If the student does not meet with you on these days, please notify me. Thank you.

_____, ADVISOR

(signature of instructor)

FFEA High School Members: Sign out of your classes and return the fully signed paper to your advisor. Those failing to do so – or failing to fulfill the obligations by interning – will be considered non-active members! Those failing to meet with teachers by required date will also be considered non-active members.

FLORIDA FUTURE EDUCATORS OF AMERICA HIGH SCHOOL

Request for Release Time

granted release time to accomplish this goal once your class requirements have been met.

S/He will sign up with a teacher, and the student and the teacher will be required to maintain a log of the time and activity that the student accomplishes in the other classroom.

You will be provided with a copy upon request.
