FCAT Writing+ Prompt Information

Hints for Responding to the FCAT Writing+ Prompt

Here are some hints to help you do your best when you respond to the FCAT Writing+ prompt. Keep these hints in mind when you write.

- ✓ Read the prompt carefully.
- ✓ Plan your writing by organizing your ideas.
- ✓ Support your ideas by telling more about each reason or argument.
- ✓ Use a variety of sentence structures.
- ✓ Choose words that help others understand what you mean.
- ✓ Review and edit your writing.

FCAT Writing+ Prompts

Below are examples of prompts. You may use one or both to practice your writing skills on pages 5–8. Your teacher may have other prompts for you to use.

Example of an Expository Prompt

Below is an example of an expository prompt. The purpose of expository writing is to explain, define, or tell how to do something by giving information. The first part of the prompt presents the topic: chores. The second part suggests that you think about the importance of chores and then write about why it is important for teenagers to have chores.

Writing Situation:

Most teenagers have chores.

Directions for Writing:

Think about why it is important for teenagers to have chores.

Now write to explain why it is important for teenagers to have chores.

Example of a Persuasive Prompt

Below is an example of a persuasive prompt. The purpose of persuasive writing is to convince the reader to accept your opinion or to take a specific action. The first part of the prompt focuses on the effect watching television may have on students' grades. The second part suggests that you think about the effect watching TV has on grades, and then write to persuade the principal to accept your point of view.

Writing Situation:

The principal of your school has suggested that watching TV causes students' grades to drop.

Directions for Writing:

Think about the effect watching TV has on your grades and your friends' grades.

Now write to convince your principal whether watching TV causes students' grades to drop.

Florida's Writing Test

For the test you will be given a booklet with a prompt inside. You will have 45 minutes to read the prompt, plan what you want to write, and write your response. A separate planning sheet will be provided. You will respond to a prompt that asks you to explain or to a prompt that asks you to persuade.

What you write should be written neatly and should show that you can organize and express your thoughts clearly and completely. You may not use a dictionary or other reference materials.

Directions for Responding to the Prompt

Pages 5–8 of this booklet show you what an FCAT prompt page, lined pages, and planning sheet look like. On the actual test, the prompt will appear in the box on the prompt page. It is important to use the planning sheet to jot down ideas and organize your writing. Although the planning sheet is not scored, you must turn it in with your test.

PLANNING SHEET

Remember, use this sheet for planning what you will write. The writing on this sheet will NOT be scored. Only the writing in the writing folder WILL be scored.

Sample Test:
Multiple-Choice Questions

Hints for Responding to the FCAT Writing+ Questions

Here are some hints to help you do your best when you respond to the FCAT Writing+ multiple-choice questions.

- ✓ Think positively. Some questions may seem hard, but others will be easy.
- ✓ Relax and do your best.
- ✓ Learn how to answer each kind of question. Some FCAT Writing+ multiple-choice questions have four answer choices, while others have three answer choices.
- ✓ Read the directions carefully. Ask your teacher to explain any directions you do not understand.
- ✓ Read carefully, and answer the questions you are sure about first. If a question seems too difficult, skip it, and go back to it later.
- ✓ Be sure to fill in the answer bubbles completely. Do not make any stray marks on the answer sheet.
- ✓ Check each answer to make sure it is the best answer for the question.

Directions for Completing the Multiple-Choice Questions

The Sample Test contains 22 questions and a Sample Answer Sheet. It should take about 30 to 45 minutes to read the test and answer all the questions. You will mark your answers on the Sample Answer Sheet on page 25. You may write on the pages of this test booklet; however, do not make stray marks on the answer sheet.

Before you begin, remove the Sample Answer Sheet by tearing along the dotted line.

What does this mean?

Tyler is writing notes about the life of Samuel Clemens, whose pen name was Mark Twain. The notes contain errors. Read the notes to answer questions 4–6.

Tyler's Notes

1. In 1839, at the age of four, Samuel Clemens' family moved to Hannibal, Missouri.
2. After his father's death in 1847, he became a printer's assistant and then worked as a printer for his brother, Orion.
3. In 1852, when Samuel was seventeen, he left Hannibal to see the world.
4. After wandering around out West for a few years, he became a riverboat pilot and worked in that trade until the Civil War forced boat traffic on the Mississippi River to stop in 1861.
5. In 1865, he became famous for his story "The Notorious Jumping Frog of Calaveras County."
6. In 1867, he traveled to other countries.
7. At the age of seventy-five, he died when he had predicted he would—when Halley's Comet returned in 1910.

4 Based on the notes, which sentence below should the writer add to the list?

- F. Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain) was born in 1835.
- G. Mark Twain's home in Hartford, Connecticut, is a tourist attraction.
- H. My favorite Mark Twain novel is The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn.
- I. Hannibal, Missouri, was also the birthplace of Molly Brown, who survived the sinking of the Titanic.

5 The writer wants to add the following detail to the notes:

Clemens started using the pen name "Mark Twain" in 1862 when he began writing books and stories.

Based on the organization of the notes, after which number on the list should this detail be added?

- A. after number 3
  - B. after number 4
  - C. after number 5
  - D. after number 6
- 6 Based on the information in the notes, what kind of paper is Tyler planning to write?
- F. He will persuade the reader to buy Clemens' novels.
  - G. He will inform the reader about important events in Clemens' life.
  - H. He will describe for the reader the sights and sounds of the print shop.
  - I. He will tell a story about a family who moved to Hannibal, Missouri.

Summer Volunteer

[1] Last spring when I signed up to volunteer at Blaire Memorial Children’s Hospital, I thought it would impress the college I might someday attend. [2] Surprisingly, being a volunteer for the last three months has significantly changed my life. [3] Now I want to pursue an education and career in nursing. [4] I know that working with children is a job I love.

[5] I volunteered in the hospital much of the summer, from 10:00 A.M. until 12:00 P.M., Monday through Friday. [6] On a typical day, I walked down the children’s hallway and visited the patients. [7] I delivered messages and gifts, like flowers or balloons, to the patients. [8] I took them drinks or other things they needed. [9] Sometimes I helped them carry their things when they were leaving the hospital.

[10] My favorite part of the experience was entertaining the young children. [11] I brought some books from home and read stories and nursery rhymes to the children. [12] Sometimes we sang songs together. [13] I know this helped the children forget about their situation for a while. [14] Helping to bring some comfort and happiness to them made me happy, too.

[15] Even though school has started again, I will continue to be a volunteer and work at the hospital on Saturday mornings. [16] On Saturday afternoons, I enjoy visiting my grandparents. [17] I want to keep helping these children in any way that I can. [18] This is the most satisfying work I have ever done.

[19] I have received many letters and smiles from the children and lots of praise from the people who work in the hospital. [20] This experience has helped me realize how much I enjoy making other people happy. [21] I never knew I was a “people person,” but now I see what a difference I have made for so many during their time in the hospital.

- 7 Which transition should be added to the beginning of sentence 8 to show a connection to the previous sentence?
- A. Therefore
B. As a result
C. In addition
D. Consequently

- 8 Read the sentence below from the essay:

9 Sometimes I helped them carry their things when they were leaving the hospital.

Which words should replace the word “things” so that the reader knows specifically what was being carried?

- F. heavy bags
G. various junk
H. personal stuff
I. assorted items
- 9 Which sentence below should be added after sentence 10 to support the ideas in the paragraph?
- A. I remember when I was in the hospital.
B. I enjoyed teaching them new games and crafts.
C. I always found lots of small jobs to do at the hospital.
D. I met two nurses who volunteered when they were my age.
- 10 Which sentence below is off-topic and should be removed from the fourth paragraph?
- F. sentence 15
G. sentence 16
H. sentence 17
I. sentence 18
- 11 Which sentence should be added to the fifth paragraph to help support the topic?
- A. The hospital is a very clean place.
B. My aunt is a nurse who loves her job.
C. Working for free at the hospital is not fun.
D. One patient even made a thank-you card for me.

Gabriel wrote the letter below to the school board. The letter contains errors. Read the letter to answer questions 12–15.

3630 Ridge Street
Miami, FL 33190
April 4, 2004

Dear School Board,

[1] I recommend Mrs. Santos for our school's Teacher of the Year award. [2] No teacher deserves it more. [3] She is one of the best teachers in our school.

[4] My first reason for recommending Mrs. Santos is because she is very good. [5] She is energetic and caring. [6] She relates well to the students. [7] She has made Spanish exciting. [8] My number one goal is to speak Spanish because I hope to visit Mexico this summer. [9] Mrs. Santos makes Spanish interesting and fun—even for those who have little or no Spanish-speaking ability. [10] Mrs. Santos speaks only in Spanish from the first day of class, but she does it in such a way that we can always understand her. [11] She shares stories and brings Spanish souvenirs to class.

[12] Mrs. Santos has a very deep respect for her students. [13] Mrs. Santos helps even the shyest students have confidence in their individual abilities. [14] She gently but firmly urges students to make new discoveries. [15] She has a unique teaching method that challenges students to link their personal interests with Spanish. [16] She even allows students to lead the class in certain units of study.

[17] Finally, Mrs. Santos is a great communicator. [18] She talks with parents and is available to help students after school. [19] She has high expectations, and she is always encouraging. [20] Her enthusiasm is accompanied by creative ideas. [21] She develops skits, songs, and short plays performed in Spanish and invites everyone to attend these after-school presentations.

[22] She is a great teacher; please give her a great honor by presenting her with the Teacher of the Year award.

Sincerely,
Gabriel Rodriguez

  - D. Mastering a foreign language is not an effortless task and should not be underestimated by exuberant or apathetic students.

Read the article "A Popular Dance." Choose the word or words that correctly complete questions 16–18.

A Popular Dance

In the early part of the (16) century, a popular dance called Jarabe Tapatio developed in Mexico. The dance tells a story of romance (17) a man and a woman.

The dancers tap and stamp their feet in a rhythmic pattern as they weave around each other, always a little distance apart. Toward the end of the dance, the male dancer throws down a large hat called a sombrero, and the female dancer dances around it. This part of the dance is called "The Dove" because the dancers' steps (18) like doves chasing each other.

Finally, the female dancer picks up the hat and puts it on her head, thus letting the male dancer know she likes him. The Jarabe Tapatio was proclaimed the national dance of Mexico in 1920.
