FCAT Writing+ Prompt Information

Hints for Responding to the FCAT Writing+ Prompt

Here are some hints to help you do your best when you respond to the FCAT Writing+ prompt. Keep these hints in mind when you write.

- ✓ Read the prompt carefully.
- ✓ Plan your writing by organizing your ideas.
- ✓ Support your ideas by telling more about each event or reason.
- ✓ Use a variety of sentence structures.
- ✓ Choose words that help others understand what you mean.
- ✓ Review and edit your writing.

FCAT Writing+ Prompts

Below are examples of prompts. You may use one or both to practice your writing skills on pages 5–8. Your teacher may have other prompts for you to use.

Example of a Prompt That Asks You to Write to Explain

Below is an example of an expository prompt. The purpose of expository writing is to explain, define, or tell how to do something by giving information. The first part of the prompt presents the topic: classroom pets. The second part suggests that you think about what animal you would like to have for a classroom pet and explain why.

Suppose you could have any animal in the world for a classroom pet.

Think about what animal you would like to have for a classroom pet.

Now write to explain why this animal should be your classroom pet.

Example of a Prompt That Asks You to Write a Story

Below is an example of a narrative prompt. The purpose of narrative writing is to tell a story. The first part of the prompt focuses on an unforgettable experience. The second part suggests that you think about an unforgettable experience, and then write about it.

Everyone has done something that he or she will always remember.

Think about a time you did something special that you will always remember.

Now write a story about the time you did something special that you will always remember.

Florida's Writing Test

For the test you will be given a booklet with a prompt inside. You will have 45 minutes to read the prompt, plan what you want to write, and write your response. A separate planning sheet will be provided. You will respond to a prompt that asks you to explain or to a prompt that asks you to tell a story.

What you write should be written neatly and should show that you can organize and express your thoughts clearly and completely. You may not use a dictionary or other reference materials.

Directions for Responding to the Prompt

Pages 5–8 of this booklet show you what an FCAT prompt page, lined pages, and planning sheet look like. This sample test book is for practice only. On the actual test, the prompt will appear in the box on the prompt page. It is important to use the planning sheet to jot down ideas and organize your writing. Although the planning sheet is not scored, you must turn it in with your test.

FCAT Writing+ Sample Test: Multiple-Choice Questions

The questions in this section are called multiple-choice questions. A multiple-choice question is followed by several answer choices. Read all the answer choices under each question, and decide which answer is correct. Fill in the bubble next to the answer you think is correct for each multiple-choice question.

Hints for Responding to the FCAT Writing+ Questions

Here are some hints to help you do your best when you respond to the FCAT Writing+ multiple-choice questions.

- ✓ Think positively. Some questions may seem hard, but others will be easy.
- ✓ Relax and do your best.
- ✓ Learn how to answer each kind of question. Some FCAT Writing+ questions have four answer choices, while others have three answer choices.
- ✓ Read the directions carefully. Ask your teacher to explain any directions you do not understand.
- ✓ Read carefully and answer the questions you are sure about first. If a question seems too difficult, skip it, and go back to it later.
- ✓ Be sure to fill in the answer bubbles completely without making any stray marks.
- ✓ Check each answer to make sure it is the best answer for the question.

Directions for Completing the Multiple-Choice Questions

The Sample Test contains 22 sample test questions. It should take about 30 to 45 minutes to read the test and answer all the questions. Fill in the bubble beside the answer you have chosen. If you change your answer, be sure to erase completely. You may write on the pages of this test booklet; however, do not make stray marks near the answer bubbles.

Janet wrote the letter below to her friend Tony. The letter contains mistakes. Read the letter to answer questions 11–14.

1639 Pinto Pony Lane
Tampa, FL 33615
August 22, 2004

Dear Tony,

- [1] I hope you like your new house, but it's too bad you didn't stay in Grove City one more weekend. [2] The whole soccer team missed you on Saturday. [3] The Comets were the hardest team we have played all year.
- [4] Here's how the game started. [5] Our team kicked the ball. [6] Penny kicked the ball to Matt. [7] Matt gave it a strong kick. [8] The Comets kicked it right back. [9] They kicked it down the field and into the net. [10] Our player at the net didn't see the ball until it was too late.
- [11] At the end of the first half, Coach Brown told us not to be afraid of the other team. [12] He said we had beaten better teams before, but I couldn't remember any. [13] His talk cheered me up anyway.
- [14] The second half was better. [15] Carlos ran around the other team and kicked the ball. [16] It went past their players into the net for our first point. [17] Then, Harvey kicked the ball to Megan, who kicked the ball into the net for another point. [18] I even kicked the ball into the net once! [19] No one has moved into your house.
- [20] The game ended with both teams having the same score. [21] We might have won the game if you had been here. [22] Anyway, we still have the best team in town.
- [23] Have you joined a new team yet? [24] I hope so. [25] Everyone misses you, so come back and visit us soon.

From an old friend,
Janet
