The CIL did not meet employment requirements.	We recommend the CIL develop an improvement plan to bring them into compliance with the Code of Federal Regulations. We recommend the CIL develop and implement employee and board training and development programs to ensure employees providing IL services and those administering the IL program have the skills and knowledge necessary to perform their duties.	Response as of August 8, 2016: As of January 2, 2016 the IL staff either transitioned to other jobs or found employment outside the CIL. The new IL staff was selected from a pool of candidates with prior social service experience. All staff is now required to go through the Independent Living Research Utilization’s (ILRU) training in ‘Foundation for Independent Living’ course within their first 90 days of employment. Board members also have access to ILRU’s training as well. A self-paced workbook with tools for improving the governance practices of non-profit organizations is in the process of development. Response as of February 8, 2017: Staff training took part in new and old staff taking 4 part course	The Board is currently working on updating the organization’s By-Laws and training packet based on the Board Governance training attended on January 27, 2017. This will provide new board members with the knowledge of Independent Living Centers and the Space Coast Center for Independent Living’s mission. The packets are nearing the final draft, at which time the board will review for approval and implementation.	October, 2017 Rosemary Miles

The CIL did not provide the four independent living core services to one of the two counties.	We recommend the CIL serve eligible individuals with the four independent living core services in Brevard and Indian River County as stated in the SPIL for Florida for 2014-2016 and the CIL’s Program Services Policies and Procedures.	Response as of August 8, 2016: Space Coast CIL’s new IL team is now part of the Interagency Council serving Indian River County. This Council is made up of various non-profit and government organizations whose focus is persons with disabilities. This partnership has opened the opportunity to reach the Indian River community and it is ongoing.	For fiscal year 2016-2017 Space Coast Center for Independent Living doubled the number of consumers served in Indian River County from the number served in fiscal year 2015-2016. Space CIL currently holds Independent Living skills classes at Gulfstream Goodwill Industries in Vero Beach.	On-going Rosemary Miles

The addition of this language brings the legality of financial testing/participation into question. We have sought clarification from our federal partner, the Administration on Community Living, but until final regulations are published we won’t know the answer. In the meantime, CILs are forbidden from charging consumers with disabilities for services provided with VR funds. All CILs have been notified of this prohibition, including via a “Technical Assistance Reminder – Charging Consumers for Services” email on March 14, 2011. Space Coast CIL was also specifically reminded of this prohibition in the findings of the Rehabilitation Services Administration	provided no guidance regarding financial means testing. To address this issue Vocational Rehabilitation has inserted the following language in the contract template for Centers for Independent Living to begin being used October 2017: “The Center shall not require financial needs testing or financial participation by consumers of independent living services funded under the State Plan for Independent Living (SPIL) unless or until guidelines are developed in collaboration with the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and the Florida Independent Living Council, and approved by a majority of	Powell/Maggie Munsey
