Session Objective

- Implement targeted, age-appropriate instructional practices, routines and interventions for foundational reading benchmarks in the secondary classroom.

This will be a courageously collaborative space. We will share, challenge, support, encourage, listen, respond, reflect and take strides together in ways that matter for our readers.

Phonological Awareness

5 Levels of Phonological Awareness

W. Blevins, "A Fresh Look at Phonics" (2017)

Let's Dig In!

Phonemic Awareness vs. Phonics-Bottari

- Read the first part of the Bottari article, stop just before the ‘What is Phonics?’ section.
- Capture key words/phrases/ideas on your note catcher.
- Be prepared to discuss with a partner.

Common Impact of Phonological Awareness Deficits

Poor Spelling

Inaccurate Decoding of New Words

Mispronunciation of Words

Difficulty Remembering or Recalling New Words

Phonological and Phonemic Awareness Activities for Older Students

- Use a guide word or gesture to remind students of a sound's identity, especially short vowels.
- Segment syllables and/or speech sounds before spelling words or to correct misspellings.
- Highlight, describe, segment and pronounce individual speech sounds if similar sounding words are confused (e.g., flush/flesh/fresh).

Phonological and Phonemic Awareness Activities for Older Students

- Orally rehearse the repetition of phrases and sentences that are being written, to reduce the load on working memory.
- Ask students to say vocabulary words aloud and to pronounce them correctly.
- Provide written, pictorial or graphic support when spoken language must be processed.

Activity

- When reading the Bottari article, pay particular attention to instructional implications for older students.
- Capture key words/phrases/ideas on the note-catcher.
- Underline one key sentence from assigned section.
- Be prepared to discuss.

Phonics

Grades 6-12 Foundational Reading Intervention Standards

Phonics and Word Analysis

ELA.612.F.2.2: Know and apply phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.

- a. Use an array of strategies to decode single-syllable and multisyllabic words.
- b. Accurately read multisyllabic words using a combined knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences and syllabication patterns.

Encoding

ELA.612.F.2.3: Know and apply phonics and word analysis skills in encoding words.

- a. Use an array of strategies to accurately encode single-syllable and multisyllabic words.

Spelling Rules

Morphology

Are rules being explicitly taught and applied?

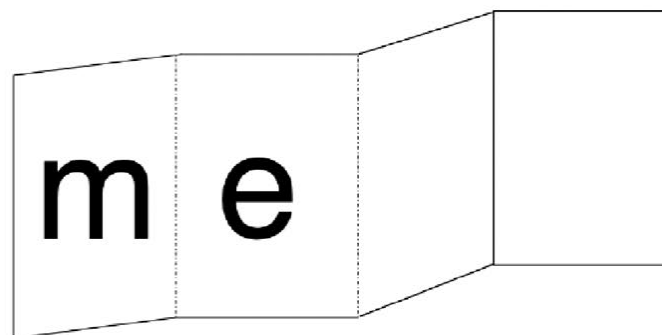

- How do you know when to use ck or k when spelling the /k/ sound at the end of a word?
- When does a g make the “soft” /j/ sound?
- How many vowel sounds are in each syllable?
- What rule helps me know how to divide the syllables in bathtub and complain?

Syllable Types:

Closed syllables (a short vowel spelled with a single vowel letter and ending in one or more consonants)	in-sect stu-dent
VCe (a long vowel spelled with one vowel + one consonant + silent e)	com-pete base-ball
Open syllables (ending with a long vowel sound, spelled with a single vowel letter)	pro-gram tor-na-do
Vowel team (multiple letters spelling the vowel)	train-er neigh-bor-hood
Vowel-r (vowel pronunciation changing before /r/)	char-ter cir-cus
Consonant-le (unaccented final syllable containing a consonant before l followed by a silent e)	drib-ble puz-zle

Open and closed syllables make up close to 50% of syllables in English Words.

Stanback (1992)

Common Syllable Division Rules

VCCV – divide between the consonants

pic|nic
v c | c v

VCV – divide after first vowel (open, long) or after consonant (closed, short)

ci|v|ic

VCCCV – divide after the first or after the second consonant

Map and Swoop

FCRR Student Centered Activities

1. Write each word using phoneme-grapheme mapping (i.e., one grapheme per box).
2. Underline each vowel grapheme (i.e., single, r-controlled, and vowel teams).
3. Swoop the syllables underneath the letters.
4. Identify each syllable type.

Phonics

P.033 Syllable Patterns
Map and Swoop

Objective
The student will segment syllables in words.

Materials

- ▶ Student sheet (Activity Master P033.SS1a - P033.SS1f)
- Choose target syllable pattern(s).*
- When mapping VCE syllables, the "e" is placed below the final grapheme with a slash and an arrow is drawn leading back to the vowel that is making long.*
- ▶ Pencil

Activity

Students map graphemes to phonemes and mark syllables within words.

1. Provide the student with a student sheet.
2. Student writes each word using phoneme-grapheme mapping (i.e., one grapheme per box).
3. Underlines each vowel (i.e., single, r-controlled, and vowel teams).
4. Swoops the syllables underneath the letters.
5. Continues until the student sheet is complete.
6. Teacher evaluation

6. isolate
7. trumpet
8. snake
9. plate
10. corridor

Extensions and Adaptations

- ▶ Combine syllable types (Activity Master P033.SS2).
- ▶ Use different words (Activity Master P033.SS3).

Map and Swoop

- Let's try #9 together.
- Say the word together.
- Underline the graphemes that represent vowel sounds.

---	---	---	---	---	---	----

Map and Swoop

Word Sorts

- Closed Sort – Students are directed how to sort the words (provided categories).
- Open Sort – Students are not directed how to sort the words.
- Timed Sort – Students are directed how to sort the words, but given time constraints. These sorts may be open or closed.

Using the list of words you created, sort the words into two categories:

Words with affixes	Words without affixes

Significant Sentences

Phoneme manipulation includes adding, deleting and substituting sounds in words.

What instructional opportunities do you see to use this sentence to align to the Foundations Benchmarks of the B.E.S.T. ELA Standards?

Encoding

Fluency

Let's explore the opportunities in the underlined sentences!

- As you finish reading the Bottari article, pay particular attention to instructional implications for older students.
- Capture key words/phrases/ideas on the note catcher.
- Underline one key sentence from your section.
- Be prepared to discuss.
