Florida K12 Scholarship Programs Comparison 2022-2023
FTC	FES EO	FES UA	HOPE	READING
Eligibility:	Eligibility:	Eligibility:	Eligibility:	Eligibility:
>Included on the direct certification list, or >Household income level does not exceed 400% of the federal poverty level, or >Placed in foster or out-of-home care, or >Sibling of currently participating student >Participating students may continue in the program until graduation or 21 years of age, whichever occurs first, regardless of household income level >Number of students that may participate limited by available funding	>Included on the direct certification list, or >Household income level does not exceed 400% of the federal poverty level, or >Placed in foster or out-of-home care, or >Dependent child of a member of the US Armed Forces, or >Dependent child of a law enforcement officer, or >Sibling of FES UA student >Participating student may continue in the program until the student returns to a public school, graduates from high school, or reaches the age of 21, whichever occurs first >Number of students that may participate limited by cap established in law	>3 or 4 years old, or eligible to enroll in K-12th grade in a Florida public school, and >have an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or have a diagnosis of a disability >"Disability" means, for a student in K-12: autism spectrum disorder; cerebral palsy; Down syndrome; intellectual disability; Prader-Willi syndrome; Phelan-McDermid syndrome; Spina bifida; Williams syndrome; muscular dystrophy; a rare disease; anaphylaxis; hearing impaired; visually impaired; dual sensory impaired; traumatic brain injury; speech, language, orthopedic or other health impairment; emotional/behavioral or specific learning disability; hospital homebound for more than six months; or for a student in kindergarten, being a high-risk child >Number of students that may participate limited by cap established in law	>Student enrolled in a Florida public school who has been subjected to an incident of battery; harassment; hazing; bullying; kidnapping; physical attack; robbery; sexual offenses, harassment, assault, or battery; threat or intimidation; or fighting at school >Participating student may continue in the program until the student returns to public school or graduates from high school, whichever occurs first >Number of students that may participate limited by available funding	>Public school student in K-5th grade who has a substantial reading deficiency based on progress monitoring >Number of students that may participate limited by funds provided in appropriation

FTC	FES EO	FES UA	HOPE	READING
Scholarship uses:	Scholarship use:	Scholarship use:	Scholarship use:	Scholarship use:
Tuition and fees in an approved private school, or transportation to a Florida public school other than assigned	Tuition and fees in an approved private school, or transportation to a Florida public school other than assigned (limited to students in foster or out-of-home care or having household income 185% of federal poverty level)	Tuition and fees in an approved private school; therapies from an approved provider; home education related materials; and other contracted services, equipment and specialized programs. Public School Option: Parent of a student with an IEP may choose another school in the district (district provides transportation) or a school in an adjacent district that has available space and has a program with the services agreed to in the student's IEP already in place (parent provides transportation)	Tuition and fees in an approved private school, or transportation to a Florida public school outside the district Public School Option: Parent of an eligible student may choose to attend another school in the district that has capacity, or a school outside the district	Instructional materials and curriculum, part-time tutoring services, after school and summer literacy programs
Scholarship amount:	Scholarship amount:	Scholarship amount:	Scholarship amount:	Scholarship amount:
Based on grade level and district of residence Average amount $7400 $750 for public school transportation	Based on grade level and district of residence Average amount $7400 $750 for public school transportation	Based on grade level, district of residence, and matrix level Average amount if matrix 251, 252, or 253 $9400; amounts for matrix 254 and 255 are higher	Based on grade level and district of residence Average amount $7400 $750 for public school transportation	$500

FTC	FES EO	FES UA	HOPE	READING
How to apply:	How to apply:	How to apply:	How to apply:	How to apply:
Through eligible Scholarship Funding Organizations www.aaascholarships.org or www.stepupforstudents.org Applications open in the spring prior to new school year (students in foster or out-of-home care and military dependents are allowed to apply at any time throughout the year)	Through eligible Scholarship Funding Organizations www.aaascholarships.org or www.stepupforstudents.org Applications open in the spring prior to new school year	Through eligible Scholarship Funding Organizations www.aaascholarships.org or www.stepupforstudents.org Applications open in the spring prior to new school year	Through Step Up for Students www.stepupforstudents.org Students are allowed to apply at any time throughout the school year	Through Step Up for Students www.stepupforstudents.org Applications open early fall each school year