CTE: Continuing To Elevate Centennial Middle School Principal Dance Challenge 2020

As a STEM leader in Pasco County School District, Dr. Rick Saylor, Principal of Centennial Middle School and his staff agreed to a Middle School Dance Challenge. He agreed to dance but challenged his Coding Fundamentals students to create code for a robot to dance with him. Tracy Walker, CTE coding teacher shared that the kids were so excited and so engaged in the competition. The winning coder was 6th grader, Avery Winters. It shows a fantastic school culture as well. You'll see ESE teachers and students dancing, cafeteria staff, plant manager, MySchool Online (MSOL) students, office staff, etc. However, our new robot friend, MeeBot is the star thanks to Avery Winters!
